Body found about 10 A.M. Brookline July 9th 1859

at 5 Oclock P.M. At a Coroners Inquest held at the Town Hall upon the body of a woman found dead in the piles of the Bridge across Charles River near the Cambridge Post and Brookline Bridge

She had the appearance of a laboring person apparently about 30 Years old rather stout built about 4' 10" in Height dressed in a checked Muslin delaine dress White underclothes almost new gaiter boots White Cotton Stockings

A portmonia was found upon her person Containing 16 Cts in good money and a 25 Cts Piece & a 10 Cts Piece apparently Counterfeit or or pewter

No clew could be obtained to the identity or Name of the individual

Dead Body Man found Drowned in full Basin of Back Bay